Dear Northwest Christian School Family,

As many of you know, our school is on a journey focused on institutional growth and betterment. Last year NCS earned Marzano's level one High Reliability School Certification. Our school is now working on level two certification, focusing on effective teaching in every classroom.

You will be receiving a survey that will help us understand our school strengths and our areas of growth. Please take time to complete the survey. A high response rate will help increase the validity of the data. Please reply with your impressions of our school as a whole.

Thank you for your cooperation and for being part of our NCS family.

Blessings,

Craig Mattson
